6. MISCELLANEOUS: A written apology addressed to the People's Republic of China is required of any foreigner accused of offending a Chinese citizen or of violating any law, regulation or custom.

It has become customary for all ships making repeated calls to Chinwangtao to use canned apologies. The master of a vessel in port struck a Chinese shipboard guard for periodically peering into the cabin porthole and was required to submit an apology. The following was accepted: "I struck the guard for violating my privacy and I
